
November 26, 2018

Home > Around the state > KAR breaks ground on oceanfront condo in Hallandale Beach

Around the state

Contracting

Projects and opportunities

Southwest

KAR breaks ground on oceanfront condo in Hallandale Beach

By Adriana Valentina - November 26, 2018

New York-based developer KAR Properties has broken ground on a 38-story glass tower in Hallandale Beach.

FLORIDA CONSTRUCTION NEWS

Called 2000 Ocean, the building will feature 64 beachfront residences offering elevated beachfront lifestyle. KAR partnered with Italian designers Minotti and minotticucine, architect TEN Arquitectos, landscape designer Sasaki and concept design by Kobi Karp for the project.

Suffolk Construction is managing the building's construction, which is expected to be completed is 2020.